Infotrieve's Content SCM® Wins 2009 CODiE Award

WILTON, CT – May 6, 2009 – Infotrieve, Inc. (www.infotrieve.com), the global leader in business service solutions for information centers, revolutionary software solution Content SCM® was selected as the winner in the Best Online Science or Technology Service category of the 2009 CODiE Awards presented by the Software & Information Industry Association.

Content SCM is the only solution available which brings document delivery and rights management together in one seamless solution and the only integrated information center solution that can deliver more than 50% of all published scientific, technical, and medical content in five minutes or less.

Content SCM, Infotrieve's web-based content sourcing and delivery platform provides clients nearly immediate access to all licensed electronic content as well as more than 40 million citations available in Infotrieve's catalog of published scientific, technical, and medical (STM) information. Documents delivered are 100% copyright compliant and all order information including citation details, intended use of the article, and associated fees are tracked for easy auditing and reporting. This provides clients with a 360° view into both pay-per-view and licensed content usage in one integrated solution.

Content SCM's self-service capabilities allow information professionals and patrons to easily cross-search various resources including internal data, in-house article collections, and electronic journal licenses for content as well as external resources such as Infotrieve's expansive catalog.

"Now in its 24th year, the CODiE Awards continue to recognize those companies providing the best new technology products and services across a broad array of industries," noted SIIA President Ken Wasch. "In addition, its winners are a prolific testament to the power of technology to deliver innovative solutions to businesses and consumers. SIIA warmly congratulates all of the winners and nominees of the CODiE Awards, whose innovation is essential for continuing America's leadership in the global knowledge economy," Wasch continued.

"We are very proud to have won a CODiE Award," said Ken Benvenuto, President & CEO of Infotrieve, Inc., "and are pleased that our peers have recognized the profound ways Content SCM can help companies procure, manage, and disseminate content in a cost effective and copyright compliant way."
